GUIDELINES FOR PREPARATION OF MANUSCRIPTS

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

01) Research presented in the manuscript could be in any field of agriculture leading to a postgraduate degree. Research data should either be from an ongoing study or a study that has been completed after June 30, 2009.

02) The research work should not have been presented at a conference or published or submitted for publication elsewhere.

03) The postgraduate student should be identified as the first author.

04) A corresponding author should be identified who will be responsible for all communications with the Congress Office.

05) Submission of manuscripts: Manuscripts can be submitted online, by e-mail or by regular mail to the Congress Office on or before June 15, 2011. In case of submissions made through regular mail, the authors should forward three (03) hard copies of the manuscript and an electronic copy on a compact disc (CD) along with all other required documents. The authors are advised to mail the documents at least three (03) weeks prior to the deadline.

   Online submission – Manuscripts can be submitted on line at http://www.pgia.ac.lk/congress/.
   Via e-mail – E-mail the manuscript to congress@pgia.ac.lk.
   By regular mail – Congress Coordinator, Congress Office, Postgraduate Institute of Agriculture, University of Peradeniya, Peradeniya 20400, Sri Lanka.

06) Certificate of Authenticity: Declaration form attached hereto should be duly filled, signed by all authors and sent along with the manuscript. The authors who transfer the documents electronically should send the Certificate of Authenticity by regular mail.

07) Information of Corresponding Author: Duly filled form should be sent by regular mail.

08) Submissions that involve human or animal trials should provide evidence of approval obtained by an ethics review committee.

Digital Object Identifier (DOI):

07) Tables and Figures
- Should be included in the exact place within the text.
- Tables should be numbered sequentially using Arabic numbers. The titles should be self-explanatory. Figures should be numbered sequentially using Arabic numbers and be accompanied with a self-explanatory caption.
- Tables should not contain any vertical lines.
- Illustrations, Line drawings and Photographs, if any, should be clear, properly numbered and captioned and ready for reproduction. They should be of high resolution such as 300 and saved in .tif or .bmp formats. Please do not use .jpeg or similar formats that do not reproduce well.
- All lettering, graph lines and points on graphs should be sufficiently large and bold faced to permit reproduction for inclusion in the Proceedings and Journal.
- Lines of maps, artwork and illustrations should be of appropriate thickness. Please note that the thin lines do not reproduce well.
- Please note that the illustrations, line drawings and photographs should be placed in the appropriate location of the electronic file.
- Adjustments to the illustrations can be made to improve clarity. E.g. to enhance brightness, contrast, or color balance. However, manipulations that may enhance, obscure, move, remove or introduce should not be performed.

08) Acknowledgements
- Only the essential individuals and/or organizations/institutes should be included.
09) Units

- SI units should be used.
- A single space should be left between the numerical value and the unit. E.g. 24 ml, 45 l, 2 mg/kg.
- Degree symbol for temperature should be used separated from the numerical values by a single space as for example, 20 °C, 37 °F.

10) Acronyms and Abbreviations:

- All acronyms should be written in full at the first time of appearance. Abbreviations can be used subsequently.
- The full stop should not be included in abbreviations, e.g. rpm (not r.p.m.), ppb (not p.p.b.), '%' and '/' should be used in preference to 'per cent' and 'per', respectively. Where abbreviations are likely to cause ambiguity or may not be readily understood by readers, the units should be mentioned in full.

11) On being informed of the acceptance, the manuscripts should be revised as per the reviewers’ suggestions and re-submitted to the Congress Office. The accepted manuscripts should be presented orally or as a poster at the Congress and they will be published in the journal 'Tropical Agricultural Research', vol. 23, 2011 (ISSN: 1016-1422).

12) Please note that the manuscripts that do not conform to the above guidelines will not be accepted.
